

Every gift made to Galway Hospice is greatly appreciated.
We want to be there for our patients and their families today and for years to come.

Say You Will

Leave a meaningful and long-lasting legacy
by including a gift in your will to Galway Hospice

How to leave a gift in your will

We advise using a qualified solicitor who gives you peace of mind and who will have the expertise to ensure that your wishes are carried out as you choose. Your solicitor will guide you through the process.

Leave a gift to Galway Hospice :

1. Need not affect the provisions you have made for your nearest and dearest. You may wish to consider a gift that is a modest percentage of whatever is left over, once your family and friends are provided for.
2. Could be a fixed sum of money.
3. Could be a specific gift or item such as jewellery, stocks or property.

If you already have a will, it should be easy to amend your existing will to include a gift to Galway Hospice. Remember, legacies to charities are tax-free so leaving a gift to your charity of choice could help reduce tax payable on your estate.

We can help care for future generations if you

Say You Will to Galway Hospice.

Making Your Will

Leaving a gift in your will is simple and doing so can help ensure the long-term future of Galway Hospice, giving us the confidence that we will have the funding we need to continue our support to the people of Galway.

While Making a Will can seem like a daunting task to many of us, it is important that we leave our affairs in order. Making a Will ensures that your family and friends are provided for, and that your assets are distributed in accordance with your wishes.

Your loved ones will always come first but if you do wish to leave a gift in your will to charity, please consider Galway Hospice. Thinking about the hospice today can make a real difference to those who may need hospice care in the future.

Even if you think you don't have much to leave, you would be surprised how important your gift could be to helping us remain a vital part of the Galway community.

Including Galway Hospice in your will is a special way of leaving a meaningful and lasting legacy that will touch the lives of the individuals and families who need our care and support.

We would be pleased to invite you to the hospice and give you a better understanding of how your gift would make a difference.

Galway Hospice provides Specialist Palliative Care services to adults and children with cancer and other life-limiting illnesses. Our ethos at Galway Hospice is to maximise quality of life for our patients in a homely environment, chosen by the patient and their families.

Galway Hospice provides a range of services which include our Inpatient Unit and Day Care Facility in Renmore, Galway and Community Palliative Care across Galway City and County and the adjoining islands. Our patients can avail of various services including aromatherapy, art therapy, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, chiropody and hairdressing.

In addition to direct care, Galway Hospice also supports families of patients with a life-limiting illness and provides bereavement support after the death of a loved one.

No matter what walk of life you have led, hospice care is provided free-of-charge to those who need it, for as long as it is needed.
